MIGH-SCHOOL SCHOLARS TO RE-CEIVE DIPLOMAS TO-NIGHT.

OVER TWO HUNDRED.

These Evidences of Merit and Certificates to Be Presented at the Academy-Features of the Commencement Programme.

The twenty-third annual commencement of the Richmond High School will take place at the Academy of Music this evening at $:15 o'clock. It will be one of the most imposing events in the history of the institution. Over 200 graduates, most of whom have well earned the prefix of "sweet girl," will receive their diplo-

The various district schools also close to-day at noon. Most of them will have no special exercises or ceremonies. The principals will present the scholars who have earned them with cards of henor and cards of merit, and, in a few instances, there will be some singing and recitations.

The commencement exercises of the High School have been arranged with care and the programme will prove a most attractive one. It is doubtful if the Academy of Music will hold the large crowd which will turn out to attend the finals this evening. The address to the graduates will be made by President F. W. Boat-wright, of Richmond College, and Mr. James C. Harwood will deliver the Pea-bedy models. The certificates and the wright, of Richmond College, and Mr. James C. Harwood will deliver the Peabody medals. The certificates and the graduating diplomas will be delivered by Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson, president of the City School Board. The programme provides for exercises as follows:

Music. 1. Essay. "The Opportunities of Life." Bessie Hunter. 2. "The Soldier's Prayer." Leia Miller. Music. 3. Oration (adapted). "R. E. Lee." Chastain Northen. 4. Song. "Moonlight Will Come Again." Alma Attkisson, Nellie Garrison, Incz Weisiger, Frances Yarbrough, Violet Richardson. Thomas McCaul. Howard Woodfin, and Curry Bosher. Music. 5. "Jimmie Brown's Prompt Obedience." Aubin Terrell. 6. Song. "Bye, Baby, Bye, O." Wina Newman. Music. 7. "The Reluctant Avowal." John Eggleston. 8. Song. "Gently Sighs the Breeze." Alma Attkisson, Nellie Garrison, Violet Richardson. Thomas McCaul, Howard Woodfin, and Curry Bosher, Music.

After this will follow the address and the presentation of medals, diplomas, &c. One of the features of the musical part of the popular song. "I Love to Hear Her Voice Again." the words of which were combosed by Mr. Willie D. Price, of Green Bay, Va., and music by Miss Julia R. Henning, of this city.

and superintending its publication. The editor-in-chief. Mr. Evan R. Chesterman, has contributed many of his own taking drawings, and has also written several short literary articles, which add much to the interesting volume.

Some other features of the Spider are a poem on "Beauty." by Miss Annie Steiger Winston; "Metamorphosis," by Dr. John Pollard, and "The History of the Appellation, "Spider," by Mr. W. D. Duke.

The Spider is heautifully bound in crim The Spider is beautifully bound in crimson and navy-blue, having a large spider, with web, in silver on the front. It is well illustrated by engravings of the different organizations of the college, and also is full of ink-sketches, drawn by Chesterman, Jones, and Duke.

Mr. Allen D. Jones, the efficient business manager, deserves much credit for the success of the Spider.

CITY-HALL COURT NEWS.

A Negro Charged With Marder Acquitted-Other Cases Disposed Of. Henry alias Edward Harris, the negro charged with the murder of Edward Ford colored), was placed on trial in the Hustings Court yesterday. Some months ago Harris and Ford became involved in a duarrel on Eighth street, and the latter went at his adversary with a huge knife. Harris did not think he would relish the application of a little cold steel, so he pasted Ford on the side of the head with a board, from the effects of which blow Ford died a week later. Harris was acquitted.

Other cases disposed of in this court yesterday were as follows:
Thomas Stokes (colored), petit larceny, thirty days in jall; Wyman Magiston, burglary, acquitted.
Marriage licenses were issued to the following: Philip L. Neisz and M. Jennie Smith; Louis W. Landrum and Elizabeth V. Leake.
